5 In Rule 11 read "300/-" for "200/-" and omit the last sentence beginning with "All expenditure etc

6 Omit Rules 12, 13 and 14.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Managing Committee Rules as they exist now empower the Managing Committee with regard to many mat that should rest within the power of the Council After these Rules were passed no fine distinction was made in practice as to what matters should be dealt with finally by the Managing Committee and except so far as estimates most of the subjects which should have been finally disposed of by the Managing Committee are being placed before the Council as usual and the effect of Rule I of the Managing Committee regarding the delegation of power to the Managing Committee was therefore not felt

The powers of the Managing Committee in respect of sanctioning estimates are to be enhanced considering the present high rates.

In the existing rules there are many provisions which already exist in the Regulation and are therefore redundant Hence it is suggested that such rules be omitted for the sake of convenience.

A few other minor amendments necessary to make the rules complete are also suggested
